Dear Mr. Rinaldi:

Thank you for publishing the article on the Committee to Restore Carbondale City Hall and its plans for Pioneer Days ("Pioneer Days Events Noted") in the June 26, 1982 issue of THE SCRANTON TRIBUNE. The presentation of the article was excellent: four columns, top of the page. Thank you, in addition, for publishing the release on Volume III, Number 4 of NORTHEASTERN PENNSYLVANIA ("C'Dale Cemetery Quarterly Topic") in THE SCRANTONIAN on June 20, 1982.

Your weekly column in THE SCRANTONIAN is consistently outstanding, for two reasons: (1) you are willing to take, and do take, a specific--and public--stance on the city of Carbondale, its inhabitants and their attitudes, beliefs and aspirations; (2) you not only identify "what is in the air"/"what people are talking about," but also summarize what has taken place in Carbondale during the preceding week. After I read your "ostrichitis" column in yesterday's SCRANTONIAN, I rose to my feet and gave three cheers.

Sincerely,

S. Robert Powell
